

Spahija took over Valencia

Friday, 07 November 2008 12:12

Neven Spahija was chosen by the administration of Valencia to replace Fotis Katsikaris in the bench of the Spanish club. The Croatian coach, who last summer was one of the main lecturers of the International Clinic "Athens 2008", agreed to take the job one day before his 46th birthday.

Neven Spahija will not guide the team on the Sunday game against Granada, as he will start working on Monday, when he will officially be presented. Talking to Spanish Media he said that he was happy to be working again in the ACB and he also commented that he expects from everybody in the team hard work.